PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The psalmist calls out to us and says: Give thanks to the Eternal One, for God is good; God's love endures forever. (Psalm 106:1)

God's goodness and love is made manifest in the world around us in the many miracles we take for granted each day, our health, our livelihoods, our families and friends.

But when we remember to stop and give thanks for the many blessings that God has given us, we also become open to recognizing the blessings we are capable of both giving and receiving from each other as well.

May our hearts always be open to God's goodness and love, so that our actions become a reflection of the Holy One's presence in this world.

May this be God's will.—AMEN.
