Please join me in turning our attention this morning to a Higher Power called by many names. Sometimes this Power is called Our Father to indicate that It does not favor one over another, but lifts all people up to feel the sunlight of the Spirit. We give thanks for members and staff of this Senate, for they too know the importance of lifting all Californians up to feel the favor of this great state. As legislation is discussed in these chambers let it be discussed with compassion, inclusion, and a deep respect for all sides of every issue. Divine Intelligence is in this house and we take pause to feel Its indwelling presence.—AMEN.
