

Assembly Concurrent Resolution

No. 99

Introduced by Assembly Member Cohn

January 4, 2006

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 99—Relative to Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 99, as introduced, Cohn. Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

This measure would proclaim the month of October 2006 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, Home should be a place of warmth,
2 unconditional love, and security; however, for many Americans, 3 home is tainted with violence and fear; and

4 WHEREAS, Domestic violence is much more than the 5 occasional family dispute; and

6 WHEREAS, According to the Surgeon General, United States
7 Public Health Service, domestic violence is a societal problem of 8 epidemic proportions; and

9 WHEREAS, According to experts, between two and four 10 million American women are battered every year, and between 11 3.3 million and 10 million children witness violence in their 12 homes; and

13 WHEREAS, According to the United States Department of 14 Labor, one million people are assaulted and injured every year as 15 a result of workplace violence, one thousand people are killed
16 every year due to workplace violence, and 30 percent of battered

1 women lose their jobs due to harassment at work by abusive
2 husbands and boyfriends; and

3 WHEREAS, Battering affects families across America in all 4 socioeconomic, racial, and ethnic groups; and

5 WHEREAS, More than one-half of the number of women in 6 need of shelter from an abusive environment may be turned away 7 from a shelter due to lack of space; and

8 WHEREAS, Women are not the only targets of domestic 9 violence: young children, elderly persons, and men are also 10 victims in their own homes; and

11 WHEREAS, Emotional, physical, and psychological scars are 12 often permanent; and

13 WHEREAS, A coalition of organizations has emerged to 14 confront this crisis directly. Law enforcement agencies, domestic 15 violence hotlines, battered women and childrens' shelters, health 16 care providers, faith-based organizations, the courts, and the 17 volunteers that serve those entities are helping in the effort to end 18 domestic violence; and

19 WHEREAS, It is important to recognize the compassion and 20 dedication of the individuals involved in that effort, applaud their 21 commitment, and increase public understanding of this 22 significant problem; and

23 WHEREAS, The first Day of Unity was celebrated in October 24 1981 and was sponsored by the National Coalition Against 25 Domestic Violence for the purpose of uniting battered womens'
26 advocates across the nation in an effort to end domestic violence; 27 and

28 WHEREAS, That one day has grown into a month of activities
29 at all levels of government, aimed at creating awareness about 30 the problem and presenting solutions; and

31 WHEREAS, The first Domestic Violence Awareness Month
32 was proclaimed in October 1987; now, therefore, be it

33 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate
34 thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the 35 month of October 2006 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month;
36 and be it further

37 Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a 38 copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the 39 Governor of the State of California, the Director of the United 40 States Department of Health and Human Services, and to each

- 1 Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of
- 2 the United States.

O