

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 114

Introduced by Assembly Member Cohn
(Principal coauthor: Senator Alquist)

January 12, 2005

An act to amend Section 1109 of the Evidence Code, relating to admissibility of evidence.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 114, as introduced, Cohn. Child abuse: evidence.

Under existing law, evidence of a person's character, such as opinion or specific instances of conduct, is generally not admissible to provide a defendant's conduct on a particular occasion, with specified exceptions. Existing law provides, however, that when a defendant is accused of domestic violence in a criminal action, evidence of the defendant's prior acts of domestic violence may be admitted to prove the defendant's conduct, except as to the findings and declarations of a regulatory agency or when the acts occurred more than 10 years ago or the court exercises its discretion to exclude the evidence of prior acts, as specified.

This bill would provide that when a defendant is accused of child abuse in a criminal action, evidence of the defendant's prior acts of domestic violence may be admitted to prove the defendant's conduct, except as specified. The bill would also define "child abuse" for purposes of that provision and would make other nonsubstantive changes.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.
