January 4, 2005

An act to amend Section ~~209.46~~ 290.46 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 43, as amended, Battin. Megan's Law: applicable offenses.

Existing law requires the Department of Justice, on or before July 1, 2005, to make specified information about certain sex offenders available to the public via an Internet Web site, including a photograph, physical description, and criminal history, and to update that information on an ongoing basis. This information also includes the home address of specified offenders and the community of residence and ZIP Code of others. Existing law also provides that certain offenders with less serious sexual offense histories, as specified, may apply to the Department of Justice for exclusion from the Internet Web site.

This bill would add persons who have been convicted of various felony offenses involving obscene matter depicting a minor or matter depicting a minor engaging in or simulating sexual conduct and sexual exploitation of a child, unless the registrant applies to the department for exclusion from the Internet Web site and submits a probation report that states that ~~the person depicted in the unlawful matter at issue was~~ all victims involved in the commission of the offense were at least 16 years of age at the time of the ~~depiction~~ commission of the offense, to the list of offenders whose communities of residence and ZIP Codes will be made available on the Internet Web site.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

15 department is required to make information about him or her
16 available to the public via an Internet Web site as specified in 17 this section. The Department of Justice shall also make a
18 reasonable effort to provide notice that he or she may be eligible
19 for exclusion from the Internet Web site if he or she may have
20 been convicted of an offense for which exclusion is available
21 pursuant to subdivision (e).

22 (g) Notwithstanding Section 6254.5 of the Government Code,

2 fine and imprisonment.

3 (j) (1) A person is authorized to use information disclosed
4 pursuant to this section only to protect a person at risk.
