An act relating to lending.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 941, as amended, Torrico. Real property loans: disclosures.

Existing law, the Real Estate Law, requires a real estate broker, who negotiates a loan to be secured by a lien on real property, to deliver to the borrower a statement in writing containing specified information relating to the loan transaction. Existing law requires a lender to provide a borrower with specified information prior to execution by the borrower of a mortgage payment instrument.

This bill would require the Department of Real Estate to review the real property transaction disclosure process and, by July 1, 2008, ~~to~~ complete a draft report and post it on its Internet Web site for public review. The bill would require the Department of Real Estate to consult with other departments as necessary to assist in the preparation of the report, and would require any department so consulted to comply with the request. The bill would require the Department of Real Estate to hold ~~2 public hearings to receive public comment~~ accept written comments on its draft report and to submit a final report to the Legislature by January 1, 2009, with recommendations on how that process can be improved, as specified.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) The Department of Real Estate shall review
2 the real property transaction disclosure process and report to the 3 Legislature with recommendations on how that process can be 4 improved to ensure a consumer’s ability to better understand the
5 terms of the transaction, including the terms of his or her mortgage
6 loan. This report shall include, but not be limited to,
7 recommendations on which state-required real property transfer
8 documents should be added, amended, consolidated, made optional,
9 or eliminated.

10 (b) The department shall consult with other departments as 11 necessary to assist in the preparation of the report. Any department
12 so consulted shall comply with the request.

13 (c) The department shall complete a draft report by July 1, 2008,
14 which shall be posted on its Internet Web site and made available
15 free of charge to members of the public for review. ~~The department~~
16 ~~shall hold two public hearings to receive public comment on the~~ 17 ~~draft report, one in northern California and one in southern~~ 18 ~~California.~~ The department shall ~~also~~ accept written comments on 19 the draft report through October 31, 2008, and shall submit a final
20 report to the Legislature by January 1, 2009.
