ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1291

Introduced by Assembly Member Niello

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Sections 1513, 1513.5, 1514, 1516, 1520, 1532, 1560, ~~1565~~, and 1577 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to unclaimed property.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1291, as amended, Niello. Unclaimed property.

Existing law, the Unclaimed Property Law, governs the disposition of unclaimed property, including the escheat of certain property to the state. Those provisions require a person holding funds or other property escheated to the state to report to the Controller certain information regarding the property and the owner.

Existing law provides for the escheat to the state of (1) certain deposits or accounts made with a banking organization, together with other specified sums, (2) certain deposits, accounts, investment certificates, or other interests in or deposits made with a financial organization, together with other specified sums, and (3) certain funds held by a business association in specified retirement accounts or plans, when the owner, for more than 3 years, has not taken any of certain actions, except as specified.

Existing law requires certain entities to make reasonable efforts to notify owners of certain property, by mail, that the property will escheat to the state under specified provisions of law.

This bill would allow those entities to notify an owner described above electronically if the owner has consented to electronic notice.

Existing law requires the holder of certain property, including certain property held by a banking or financial organization, certain sums held or owing by a business association to shareholders or other specified persons, and tangible property that is held in the ordinary course of the holder's business, to notify the owner, at prescribed times, of information regarding escheat and to include a form by which the owner may declare an intention to maintain the deposit, account, shares, or other interest.

This bill would require that those notices contain certain information, and would allow the holder to provide a telephone number or other electronic means to enable the owner to contact the organization in lieu of returning the above-described form to declare the owner's intent. The bill would authorize the holder to give additional notices, as specified. The bill, commencing January 1, 2011, would require that, at the time a new account is opened with a banking or financial organization, the organization provide a written notice to the person opening the account regarding escheat.

Existing law provides that the contents of any safe deposit box or any other safekeeping repository held in this state by a bank, financial organization, or business association escheat to the state if unclaimed by the owner for more than 3 years from the date on which the lease or rental period on the box or other repository expired, or from the date of termination of another specified agreement, whichever occurs last occurs.

~~This bill would provide, instead, that the contents of a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository held in this state by a bank, financial organization, or business association, or the proceeds of sale of those contents, escheat to the state if unclaimed for more than 3 years from the later of the 2 dates described above. The bill would require the a~~ bank, financial organization, or business association to notify the owner of the contents of a safe deposit box, at either of 2 specified times, regarding escheat, and would specify the contents of the notice. The bill would require that notice to include a form by which the customer may declare an intention to maintain the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository, and would authorize the bank, financial organization, or business association to impose a service charge for the notice and form. The bill would provide that the contents of a safe deposit box shall not escheat to the state under certain circumstances. The bill would also require a bank, financial organization, or business association to provide a notice regarding escheat to a person opening a new account for a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository.

Existing law requires every person holding funds or other property escheated to the state to report to the Controller, as specified. Existing law requires every person filing such a report to pay or deliver to the Controller all escheated property specified in the report within a certain period.

This bill would allow the Controller to postpone the date for payment or delivery of the property, and the date for any report required by the above provisions, upon his or her own motion or upon written request by any person required to pay or deliver the property or file a report.

Existing law provides that a person who pays or delivers escheated property to the Controller under the above provisions is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property paid or delivered for any claim that then exists or that thereafter may arise.

This bill would provide, instead, that a person who pays or delivers escheated property to the Controller under the above provisions and who, prior to escheat, if the person's records contain an address for the apparent owner, which the holder's records do not disclose to be inaccurate, has made reasonable efforts to notify the owner by mail or electronically that the owner's property, deposit, account, shares, or other interest will escheat to the state, is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property paid or delivered for any claim that then exists or that thereafter may arise.

~~Existing law requires that any property delivered to the Controller pursuant to the above provisions that has no apparent commercial value be retained by the Controller for not less than 18 months from the date the property is delivered to the Controller.~~

~~This bill would require, instead, that the Controller retain that property for not less than 7 years.~~

Existing law requires that any person who fails to report, pay, or deliver unclaimed property within the time prescribed by these provisions, unless that failure is due to reasonable cause, pay to the Controller interest at the rate of 12% per annum on that property or value thereof from the date the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered.

This bill would require, in addition, that any person who fails to file a report substantially in the time and manner required by specified provisions of law, unless that failure is due to reasonable cause, pay to the Controller interest as described above. The bill would limit the interest payable to the Controller if a holder has failed to file a report in a required manner, but has timely paid or delivered the property to the Controller.

This bill would make other related and conforming changes.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

SECTION 1.

SEC. 2. Section 1513.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1513.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the holder has in its records an address for the apparent owner, which the holder’s records do not disclose to be inaccurate, every banking or financial organization shall make reasonable efforts to notify any owner by mail or, if the owner has consented to electronic notice, electronically, that the owner’s deposit, account, shares, or other interest in the banking or financial organization will escheat to the state pursuant to ~~paragraph (1) or (2) clause (i) or (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraphs (1), (2), or (6) of subdivision (a)~~ of Section 1513. The holder shall give notice either:

(1) Not less than two years nor more than two and one-half years after the date of last activity by, or communication with, the owner with respect to the account, deposit, shares, or other interest, as shown on the record of the banking or financial organization.

(2) Not less than six nor more than 12 months before the time the account, deposit, shares, or other interest becomes reportable to the Controller in accordance with this chapter.

(b) The notice required by this section shall specify the time that the deposit, account, shares, or other interest will escheat and the effects of escheat, including the necessity for filing a claim for the return of the deposit, account, shares, or other interest. The face of the notice shall contain a heading at the top that reads as follows: “THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA REQUIRES US TO NOTIFY YOU THAT YOUR UNCLAIMED PROPERTY MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO THE STATE IF YOU DO NOT CONTACT US,” or substantially similar language. The notice required by this section shall, in boldface type or in a font a minimum of two points larger than the rest of the notice, exclusive of the heading, (1) specify that since the date of last activity, or

1 for the last two years, there has been no owner activity on the 2 deposit, account, shares, or other interest; (2) identify the deposit, 3 account, shares, or other interest by number or identifier, which 4 need not exceed four digits; (3) indicate that the deposit, account, 5 shares, or other interest is in danger of escheating to the state; and 6 (4) specify that the California Unclaimed Property Law requires 7 banks, banking organizations, and financial organizations to 8 transfer funds of a deposit, account, shares, or other interest if it 9 has been inactive for three years. It shall also include a form, as 10 prescribed by the Controller, by which the owner may declare an 11 intention to maintain the deposit, account, shares, or other interest.
12 If that form is filled out, signed by the owner, and returned to the 13 banking or financial organization, it shall satisfy the requirement
14 of clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), or clause (iii)
15 of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), of subdivision (a) of Section 16 1513. In lieu of returning the form, the banking or financial 17 organization may provide a telephone number or other electronic 18 means to enable the owner to contact that organization. The contact, 19 as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the 20 banking or financial organization, shall satisfy the requirement of 21 clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), or clause (iii) of 22 subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), of subdivision (a) of Section
23 1513. The banking or financial organization may impose a service
24 charge on the deposit, account, shares, or other interest for this 25 notice in an amount not to exceed the administrative cost of mailing 26 or electronically sending the notice and form and in no case to 27 exceed two dollars ($2).

28 (c) Notice as provided by subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not be 29 required for deposits, accounts, shares, or other interests of less 30 than fifty dollars ($50), and no service charge may be made for 31 notice on these items.

32 (d) In addition to the notices required pursuant to subdivision 33 (a), the holder may give additional notice as described in 34 subdivision (b) at any time between the date of last activity by, or 35 communication with, the owner and the date the holder transfers
36 the deposit, account, shares, or other interest to the Controller.

37 (e) At the time a new account is opened with a banking or 38 financial organization, the organization shall provide a written 39 notice to the person opening the account informing the person that 40 his or her property may be transferred to the applicable state if no

1 activity occurs in the account within the time period specified by 2 state law. If the person opening the account has consented to 3 electronic notice, that notice may be provided electronically. This 4 subdivision shall become effective on January 1, 2011.

5 ~~SEC. 2.~~

6 SEC. 3. Section 1514 of the Code of Civil Procedure is 7 amended to read:

8 1514. (a) The contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the 9 contents of, any safe deposit box or any other safekeeping 10 repository, held in this state by a ~~bank, financial organization, or~~ 11 business association, escheat to this state if unclaimed by the owner 12 for more than three years from the date on which the lease or rental 13 period on the box or other repository expired, or from the date of 14 termination of any agreement because of which the box or other 15 repository was furnished to the owner without cost, whichever last 16 occurs.

17 (b) If a ~~bank, financial organization, or~~ business association has 18 in its records an address for an apparent owner of the contents of, 19 or the proceeds of sale of the contents of, a safe deposit box or 20 other safekeeping repository described in subdivision (a), and the 21 records of the ~~bank, financial organization, or~~ business association 22 do not disclose the address to be inaccurate, the ~~bank, financial~~ 23 ~~organization, or~~ business association shall make reasonable efforts 24 to notify the owner by mail, or, if the owner has consented to 25 electronic ~~notification~~ notice, electronically, that the owner's 26 contents, or the proceeds of the sale of the contents, will escheat 27 to the state pursuant to this section. The ~~bank, financial~~ 28 ~~organization, or~~ business association shall give notice ~~either: not~~ 29 less than six months and not more than 12 months before the time 30 the contents, or the proceeds of the sale of the contents, become 31 reportable to the Controller in accordance with this chapter.

32 ~~(1) Not less than two years and not more than two and one-half~~ 33 ~~years after the date of last activity by, or communication with, the~~ 34 ~~owner with respect to the account, deposit, shares, or other interest,~~ 35 ~~as shown on the record of the bank, financial organization, or~~ 36 ~~business association.~~

37 ~~(2) Not less than six and not more than 12 months before the~~ 38 ~~time the account, deposit, shares, or other interest becomes~~
39 ~~reportable to the Controller in accordance with this chapter.~~

~~(c) The notice required by subdivision (b) shall do all of the following:~~

~~(2) Identify the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository by number or identifier.~~

~~(3) Indicate that the contents of the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository are in danger of escheating to the state.~~

~~(4) Specify that the California Unclaimed Property Law requires banks, banking organizations, business associations, and financial organizations to transfer property if it has been inactive for three years.~~

~~(d) The notice shall also include a form, as prescribed by the Controller, by which the owner may declare an intention to maintain the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository by either renewing the lease, rental period, or agreement, or otherwise take possession of the property from the bank, financial organization, or business association. If that form is filled out, signed by the owner, and returned to the bank, financial organization, or business association, it shall be considered as a claim for the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository and the contents shall not escheat. The bank, financial organization, or business association may impose a service charge on the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository in an amount not to exceed the administrative cost of mailing the notice and form, and in no case to exceed two dollars ($2).~~

~~(e) In addition to the notice required pursuant to subdivision (b), the bank, financial organization, or business association may~~

(c) The face of the notice shall contain a heading at the top that reads as follows: "THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA REQUIRES US TO NOTIFY YOU THAT YOUR UNCLAIMED PROPERTY MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO THE STATE IF YOU DO NOT CONTACT US," or substantially similar language. The notice required by this subdivision shall specify the date that the property will escheat and the effects of escheat, including the necessity for filing a claim for the return of the property. The notice required by this section shall, in boldface type or in a font a minimum of two points larger than the rest of the notice, exclusive of the heading, do all of the following:

1 (1) Identify the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository
2 by number or identifier.

3 (2) State that the lease or rental period on the box or repository 4 has expired or the agreement has terminated.

5 (3) Indicate that the contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the 6 contents of, the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository 7 will escheat to the state unless the owner requests the contents or 8 their proceeds.

9 (4) Specify that the California Unclaimed Property Law requires
10 business associations to transfer the contents of, or the proceeds 11 of sale of the contents of, a safe deposit box or other safekeeping 12 repository to the Controller if they remain unclaimed for more 13 than three years.

14 (5) Advise the owner to make arrangements with the business 15 association to either obtain possession of the contents of, or the 16 proceeds of sale of the contents of, the safe deposit box or other 17 safekeeping repository, or enter into a new agreement with the 18 business association to establish a leasing or rental arrangement.
19 If an owner fails to establish such an arrangement prior to the end 20 of the period described in subdivision (a), such contents or 21 proceeds shall escheat to this state.

22 (d) In addition to the notice required pursuant to subdivision 23 (b), the business association may give additional notice in 24 accordance with subdivision (c) at any time between the date of 25 the last activity by, or communication with, the owner and the date 26 the bank, financial organization, or business association transfers 27 the contents of the safe deposit box time between the date on which 28 the lease or rental period for the safe deposit box or repository 29 expired, or from the date of the termination of any agreement, 30 through which the box or other repository was furnished to the 31 owner without cost, whichever is earlier, and the date the business 32 association transfers the contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the 33 contents of, the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository
34 to the Controller.

35 (f) ~~A safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository shall not,~~ 36 ~~however, escheat to the state if, during the previous three years,~~ 37 ~~the owner has owned any demand, savings, or matured time~~
38 ~~deposit, or account subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal,~~ 39 ~~made with a bank, financial organization, or business association~~ 40 ~~and, with respect to that deposit or account, the owner has done~~

1 any of the acts described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of 2 subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section
3 1513 and the bank, financial organization, or business association 4 has communicated electronically or in writing with the owner, at 5 the address to which communications regarding that deposit or 6 account are regularly sent, with regard to the deposit or account 7 that would otherwise escheat under that section. For purposes of 8 this subdivision, “communications” include account statements or 9 statements required under the internal revenue laws of the United 10 States. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the owner is 11 in default under the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository 12 agreement, the bank, financial organization, or business association 13 may pay or deliver the contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the 14 contents of, the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository 15 to the owner after deducting any amount due and payable from 16 those proceeds under that agreement. Upon making that payment 17 or delivery under this subdivision, the bank, financial organization, 18 or business association shall be relieved of all liability to the extent 19 of the value of those contents or proceeds.

20 (g) ~~At the time a new account for a safe deposit box or other~~ 21 ~~safekeeping repository is opened with a bank, financial~~ 22 ~~organization, or business association, the bank, financial~~ 23 ~~organization, or business association shall provide a written notice~~ 24 ~~to the person opening the account informing the person that his or~~ 25 ~~her property may be transferred to the applicable state if no activity~~ 26 ~~occurs in the account within the time period specified by state law.~~

27 (h) ~~A bank, financial organization, or business association may~~ 28 (e) The contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the contents of,
29 a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository shall not escheat
30 to the state if, as of June 30 or the fiscal yearend next preceding
31 the date on which a report is required to be filed under Section 32 1530, the owner has owned, with a banking organization providing 33 the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository, any demand,
34 savings, or matured time deposit, or account subject to a negotiable
35 order of withdrawal, which has not escheated under Section 1513
36 and is not reportable under subdivision (d) of Section 1513.

37 (f) The contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the contents of, a 38 safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository shall not escheat
39 to the state if, as of June 30 or the fiscal yearend next preceding
40 the date on which a report is required to be filed under Section

1 1530, the owner has owned, with a financial organization providing 2 the safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository, any demand, 3 savings, or matured time deposit, or matured investment certificate, 4 or account subject to a negotiable order of withdrawal, or other 5 interest in a financial organization or any deposit made therewith, 6 and any interest or dividends thereon, which has not escheated 7 under Section 1513 and is not reportable under subdivision (d) of 8 Section 1513.

9 (g) The contents of, or the proceeds of sale of the contents of,
10 a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository shall not escheat
11 to the state if, as of June 30 or the fiscal yearend next preceding
12 the date on which a report is required to be filed under Section 13 1530, the owner has owned, with a banking or financial 14 organization providing the safe deposit box or other safekeeping 15 repository, any funds in an individual retirement account or under 16 a retirement plan for self-employed individuals or similar account 17 or plan pursuant to the internal revenue laws of the United States 18 or the income tax laws of this state, which has not escheated under 19 Section 1513 and is not reportable under subdivision (d) of Section 20 1513.

21 (h) In the event the owner is in default under the safe deposit 22 box or other safekeeping repository agreement and the owner has 23 owned any demand, savings, or matured time deposit, account, or 24 plan described in subdivisions (e), (f), or (g), the banking or 25 financial organization may pay or deliver the contents of, or the 26 proceeds of sale of the contents of, the safe deposit box or other 27 safekeeping repository to the owner after deducting any amount 28 due and payable from those proceeds under that agreement. Upon 29 making that payment or delivery under these subdivisions, the 30 banking or financial organization shall be relieved of all liability 31 to the extent of the value of those contents or proceeds.

32 (i) For new accounts opened for a safe deposit box or other 33 safekeeping repository with a business association on and after 34 January 1, 2011, the business association shall provide a written 35 notice to the person leasing the safe deposit box or safekeeping 36 repository informing the person that his or her property, or the 37 proceeds of sale of such property, may be transferred to the 38 appropriate state upon running of the time period specified by 39 state law from the date the lease or rental period on the safe 40 deposit box or repository expired, or from the date of termination

1 of any agreement because of which the box or other repository
2 was furnished to the owner without cost, whichever is earlier.

3 (j) A business association may directly escheat the contents of 4 a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository without 5 exercising its rights under Article 2 (commencing with Section 6 1660) of Chapter 13 of Division 1 of the Financial Code.

7 ~~SEC. 3.~~

8 SEC. 4. Section 1516 of the Code of Civil Procedure is 9 amended to read:

10 1516. (a) Subject to Section 1510, any dividend, profit, 11 distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum held or 12 owing by a business association for or to its shareholder, certificate 13 holder, member, bondholder, or other security holder, or a 14 participating patron of a cooperative, who has not claimed it, or 15 corresponded in writing with the business association concerning 16 it, within three years after the date prescribed for payment or 17 delivery, escheats to this state.

18 (b) Subject to Section 1510, any intangible interest in a business 19 association, as evidenced by the stock records or membership 20 records of the association, escheats to this state if (1) the interest 21 in the association is owned by a person who for more than three 22 years has neither claimed a dividend or other sum referred to in 23 subdivision (a) nor corresponded in writing with the association 24 or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum 25 or other record on file with the association, and (2) the association 26 does not know the location of the owner at the end of the three-year 27 period. With respect to the interest, the business association shall 28 be deemed the holder.

29 (c) Subject to Section 1510, any dividends or other distributions 30 held for or owing to a person at the time the stock or other security 31 to which they attach escheats to this state also escheat to this state 32 as of the same time.

33 (d) If the business association has in its records an address for 34 the apparent owner, which the business association's records do 35 not disclose to be inaccurate, with respect to any interest that may 36 escheat pursuant to subdivision (b), the business association shall 37 make reasonable efforts to notify the owner by mail or, if the owner
38 has consented to electronic notice, electronically, that the owner's 39 interest in the business association will escheat to the state. The 40 notice shall be given not less than 6 nor more than 12 months before the time the interest in the business association becomes reportable to the Controller in accordance with this chapter. The face of the notice shall contain a heading at the top that reads as follows: “THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA REQUIRES US TO NOTIFY YOU THAT YOUR UNCLAIMED PROPERTY MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO THE STATE IF YOU DO NOT CONTACT US,” or substantially similar language. The notice required by this subdivision shall specify the time that the interest will escheat and the effects of escheat, including the necessity for filing a claim for the return of the interest. The notice required by this section shall, in boldface type or in a font a minimum of two points larger than the rest of the notice, exclusive of the heading, (1) specify that since the date of last activity, or for the last two years, there has been no customer activity on the deposit, account, shares, or other interest; (2) identify the deposit, account, shares, or other interest by number or identifier, which need not exceed four digits; (3) indicate that the deposit, account, shares, or other interest is in danger of escheating to the state; and (4) specify that the California Unclaimed Property Law requires banks, banking organizations, and financial organizations to transfer funds of a deposit, account, shares, or other interest if it has been inactive for three years. It shall also include a form, as prescribed by the Controller, by which the owner may confirm the owner’s current address. If that form is filled out, signed by the owner, and returned to the holder, it shall be deemed that the business association knows the location of the owner.

In lieu of returning the form, the business association may provide a telephone number or other electronic means to enable the owner to contact the association. With that contact, as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the business association, the business association shall be deemed to know the location of the owner. The business association may impose a service charge on the deposit, account, shares, or other interest for this notice and form in an amount not to exceed the administrative cost of mailing or electronically sending the notice and form, and in no case to exceed two dollars ($2).

(e) In addition to the notice required pursuant to subdivision (d), the holder may give additional notice as described in subdivision (d) at any time between the date of last activity by, or

1 communication with, the owner and the date the holder transfers
2 the deposit, shares, or other interest to the Controller.

3 ~~SEC. 4.~~

4 SEC. 5. Section 1520 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
5 amended to read:

6 1520. (a) All tangible personal property located in this state
7 and, subject to Section 1510, all intangible personal property, 8 except property of the classes mentioned in Sections 1511, 1513, 9 1514, 1515, 1515.5, 1516, 1517, 1518, 1519, and 1521, including 10 any income or increment thereon and deducting any lawful charges, 11 that is held or owing in the ordinary course of the holder's business 12 and has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than three 13 years after it became payable or distributable escheats to this state.

14 (b) Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1513.5, 15 subdivision (b) of Section 1514, and subdivision (d) of Section 16 1516, if the holder has in its records an address for the apparent 17 owner of property valued at fifty dollars ($50) or more, which the 18 holder's records do not disclose to be inaccurate, the holder shall 19 make reasonable efforts to notify the owner by mail or, if the owner
20 has consented to electronic notice, electronically, that the owner's 21 property will escheat to the state pursuant to this chapter. The 22 notice shall be mailed not less than six nor more than 12 months 23 before the time when the owner's property held by the business 24 becomes reportable to the Controller in accordance with this 25 chapter. The face of the notice shall contain a heading at the top
26 that reads as follows: "THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
27 REQUIRES US TO NOTIFY YOU THAT YOUR UNCLAIMED 28 PROPERTY MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO THE STATE IF 29 YOU DO NOT CONTACT US," or substantially similar language.
30 The notice required by this subdivision shall specify the time when 31 the property will escheat and the effects of escheat, including the 32 need to file a claim in order for the owner's property to be returned 33 to the owner. The notice required by this section shall, in boldface 34 type or in a font a minimum of two points larger than the rest of 35 the notice, exclusive of the heading, (1) specify that since the date 36 of last activity, or for the last two years, there has been no owner 37 activity on the deposit, account, shares, or other interest; (2) 38 identify the deposit, account, shares, or other interest by number 39 or identifier, which need not exceed four digits; (3) indicate that 40 the deposit, account, shares, or other interest is in danger of

1 escheating to the state; and (4) specify that the California
2 Unclaimed Property Law requires banks, banking organizations, 3 and financial organizations to transfer funds of a deposit, account, 4 shares, or other interest if it has been inactive for three years. It 5 shall also include a form, as prescribed by the Controller, by which 6 the owner may confirm the owner's current address. If that form 7 is filled out, signed by the owner, and returned to the holder, it 8 shall be deemed that the account, or other device in which the 9 owner's property is being held, remains currently active and 10 recommences the escheat period. In lieu of returning the form, the 11 holder may provide a telephone number or other electronic means 12 to enable the owner to contact the holder. With that contact, as 13 evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the 14 holder, the account or other device in which the owner's property 15 is being held shall be deemed to remain currently active and shall 16 recommence the escheat period. The holder may impose a service
17 charge on the deposit, account, shares, or other interest for this 18 notice in an amount not to exceed the administrative cost of mailing 19 or electronically sending the notice and form, and in no case to 20 exceed two dollars ($2).

21 (c) In addition to the notice required pursuant to subdivision 22 (b), the holder may give additional notice as described in 23 subdivision (b) at any time between the date of last activity by, or 24 communication with, the owner and the date the holder transfers
25 the property to the Controller.

26 (d) For purposes of this section, "lawful charges" means charges 27 which are specifically authorized by statute, other than the 28 Unclaimed Property Law, or by a valid, enforceable contract.

29 ~~SEC. 5.~~

30 SEC. 6. Section 1532 of the Code of Civil Procedure is 31 amended to read:

32 1532. (a) Every person filing a report as provided by Section 33 1530 shall, no sooner than seven months and no later than seven 34 months and 15 days after the final date for filing the report, pay 35 or deliver to the Controller all escheated property specified in the 36 report. Any payment of unclaimed cash in an amount of at least 37 twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) shall be made by electronic 38 funds transfer pursuant to regulations adopted by the Controller.
39 The Controller may postpone the date for payment or delivery of 40 the property, and the date for any report required by subdivision

1 (b), upon his or her own motion or upon written request by any 2 person required to pay or deliver the property or file a report as 3 required by this section.

4 (b) If a person establishes his or her right to receive any property 5 specified in the report to the satisfaction of the holder before that 6 property has been delivered to the Controller, or it appears that, 7 for any other reason, the property may not be subject to escheat
8 under this chapter, the holder shall not pay or deliver the property 9 to the Controller but shall instead file a report with the Controller, 10 on a form and in a format prescribed or approved by the Controller, 11 containing information pertaining to the property not subject to 12 escheat.

13 (c) Any property not paid or delivered pursuant to subdivision
14 (b) that is later determined by the holder to be subject to escheat 15 under this chapter shall not be subject to the interest provision of 16 Section 1577.

17 (d) The holder of any interest under subdivision (b) of Section 18 1516 shall deliver a duplicate certificate to the Controller or shall 19 register the securities in uncertificated form in the name of the 20 Controller. Upon delivering a duplicate certificate or providing 21 evidence of registration of the securities in uncertificated form to 22 the Controller, the holder, any transfer agent, registrar, or other 23 person acting for or on behalf of the holder in executing or 24 delivering the duplicate certificate or registering the uncertificated 25 securities, shall be relieved from all liability of every kind to any 26 person including, but not limited to, any person acquiring the 27 original certificate or the duplicate of the certificate issued to the 28 Controller for any losses or damages resulting to that person by 29 the issuance and delivery to the Controller of the duplicate 30 certificate or the registration of the uncertificated securities to the 31 Controller.

32 (e) Payment of any intangible property to the Controller shall 33 be made at the office of the Controller in Sacramento or at another 34 location as the Controller by regulation may designate. Except as 35 otherwise agreed by the Controller and the holder, tangible personal 36 property shall be delivered to the Controller at the place where it 37 is held.

38 (f) Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds 39 transfer is initiated if the settlement to the state's demand account 40 occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer

1 is initiated. If the settlement to the state's demand account does 2 not occur on or before the banking day following the date the 3 transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date 4 settlement occurs.

5 (g) Any person required to pay cash by electronic funds transfer 6 who makes the payment by means other than an authorized 7 electronic funds transfer shall be liable for a civil penalty of 2 8 percent of the amount of the payment that is due pursuant to this 9 section, in addition to any other penalty provided by law. Penalties 10 are due at the time of payment. If the Controller finds that a 11 holder's failure to make payment by an appropriate electronic 12 funds transfer in accordance with the Controller's procedures is 13 due to reasonable cause and circumstances beyond the holder's 14 control, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary 15 care and in the absence of willful neglect, that holder shall be 16 relieved of the penalties.

17 (h) An electronic funds transfer shall be accomplished by an 18 automated clearinghouse debit, an automated clearinghouse credit, 19 a Federal Reserve Wire Transfer (Fedwire), or by an international 20 funds transfer. Banking costs incurred for the automated 21 clearinghouse debit transaction by the holder shall be paid by the 22 state. Banking costs incurred by the state for the automated 23 clearinghouse credit transaction may be paid by the holder
24 originating the credit. Banking costs incurred for the Fedwire 25 transaction charged to the holder and the state shall be paid by the 26 person originating the transaction. Banking costs charged to the 27 holder and to the state for an international funds transfer may be 28 charged to the holder.

29 (i) For purposes of this section:

30 (1) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, 31 other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper 32 instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, 33 telephonic instrument, modem, computer, or magnetic tape, so as 34 to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to credit or 35 debit an account.

36 (2) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, 37 or an organization established by agreement with the National 38 Automated Clearing House Association or any similar organization, 39 that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries

1 between banks or bank accounts and that authorizes an electronic 2 transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

3 (3) “Automated clearinghouse debit” means a transaction in 4 which the state, through its designated depository bank, originates
5 an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the holder’s bank 6 account and crediting the state’s bank account for the amount of 7 payment.

8 (4) “Automated clearinghouse credit” means an automated 9 clearinghouse transaction in which the holder, through its own 10 bank, originates an entry crediting the state’s bank account and 11 debiting the holder’s bank account.

12 (5) “Fedwire” means any transaction originated by the holder 13 and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer 14 funds through federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the holder 15 debits its own bank account and credits the state’s bank account.

16 (6) “International funds transfer” means any transaction 17 originated by the holder and utilizing the international electronic 18 payment system to transfer funds, pursuant to which the holder 19 debits its own bank account, and credits the funds to a United 20 States bank that credits the Unclaimed Property Fund.

21 ~~SEC. 6.~~

22 SEC. 7. Section 1560 of the Code of Civil Procedure is
23 amended to read:

24 1560. (a) Upon the payment or delivery of escheated property 25 to the Controller, the state shall assume custody and shall be 26 responsible for the safekeeping of the property. Any person who 27 pays or delivers escheated property to the Controller under this 28 chapter and who, prior to escheat, if the person’s records contain 29 an address for the apparent owner, which the holder’s records do 30 not disclose to be inaccurate, has made reasonable efforts to notify 31 the owner by mail or, if the owner has consented to electronic 32 notice, electronically, in substantial compliance with Sections 33 1513.5, 1514, 1516, and 1520, that the owner’s property, deposit, 34 account, shares, or other interest will escheat to the state, is relieved 35 of all liability to the extent of the value of the property so paid or 36 delivered for any claim which then exists or which thereafter may 37 arise or be made in respect to the property. Property removed from 38 a safe deposit box or other safekeeping repository shall be received 39 by the Controller subject to any valid lien of the holder for rent 40 and other charges, such rent and other charges to be paid out of

1 the proceeds remaining after the Controller has deducted therefrom 2 his or her selling cost.

3 (b) Any holder who has paid moneys to the State Controller 4 pursuant to this chapter may make payment to any person appearing 5 to such holder to be entitled thereto, and upon filing proof of such 6 payment and proof that the payee was entitled thereto, the 7 Controller shall forthwith reimburse the holder for the payment 8 without deduction of any fee or other charges. Where 9 reimbursement is sought for a payment made on a negotiable
10 instrument (including a traveler's check or money order), the holder 11 shall be reimbursed under this subdivision upon filing proof that 12 the instrument was duly presented to him or her and that payment 13 was made thereon to a person who appeared to the holder to be 14 entitled to payment.

15 (c) The holder shall be reimbursed under this section even if he 16 made the payment to a person whose claim against him was barred 17 because of the expiration of any such period of time as those 18 described in Section 1570.

19 (d) Any holder who has delivered personal property, including 20 a certificate of any interest in a business association, to the 21 Controller pursuant to this chapter may reclaim such personal 22 property if still in the possession of the Controller without payment 23 of any fee or other charges upon filing proof that the owner thereof 24 has claimed such personal property from such holder. The 25 Controller may, in his or her discretion, accept an affidavit of the 26 holder stating the facts that entitle the holder to reimbursement 27 under this subdivision as sufficient proof for the purposes of this 28 subdivision.

29 ~~SEC. 7. Section 1565 of the Code of Civil Procedure is~~ 30 ~~amended to read:~~

31 ~~1565. Any property delivered to the Controller pursuant to this~~ 32 ~~chapter that has no apparent commercial value shall be retained~~ 33 ~~by the Controller for a period of not less than seven years from~~ 34 ~~the date the property is delivered to the Controller. If the Controller~~ 35 ~~determines that any property delivered to him or her pursuant to~~ 36 ~~this chapter has no apparent commercial value, he or she may at~~ 37 ~~any time thereafter destroy or otherwise dispose of the property,~~ 38 ~~and in that event no action or proceeding shall be brought or~~ 39 ~~maintained against the state or any officer thereof, or against the~~ holder for, or on account of any action taken by, the Controller pursuant to this chapter with respect to the property.

SEC. 8. Section 1577 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1577. (a) In addition to any damages, penalties, or fines for which a person may be liable under other provisions of law, any person who fails to file a report in the time and manner required by Section 1530, or who otherwise fails to report, pay, or deliver person who fails to report, pay, or deliver unclaimed property within the time prescribed by this chapter, unless that failure is due to reasonable cause, shall pay to the Controller interest at the rate of 12 percent per annum on that property or value thereof from the date the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered. If a holder pays or delivers unclaimed property in a timely manner, but files a report that is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of Section 1530, the interest payable shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The holder shall not be subject to any interest payment if the holder's failure to report in substantial compliance with the requirements of Section 1530 is due to reasonable cause.

(b) ~~Except as provided in subdivision (a), in addition to any damages, penalties, or fines for which a person may be liable under other provisions of law, any person who fails to file a report substantially in the manner required by Section 1530, unless that failure is due to reasonable cause, shall pay to the Controller interest at the rate of 12 percent per annum on that property or value thereof from the date the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered. If a holder has failed to file a report in a manner required by Section 1530, but has timely paid or delivered the property to the Controller under Section 1532, the interest payable shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).~~
