11 20 days' written notice of cancellation with or without tender of 12 the excess of paid premium above the pro rata premium for the 13 expired time, which excess, if not tendered, shall be refunded on 14 demand. Notice of cancellation shall state that said excess premium 15 (if not tendered) will be refunded on demand. If the reason for 16 cancellation is nonpayment of premium, this policy may be 17 canceled by this company by giving to the insured a 10 days'
18 written notice of cancellation.

19
20 Mortgagee interests and obligations
21

22 If loss hereunder is made payable, in whole or in part, to a

26 If the insured fails to render proof of loss the mortgagee, upon 27 notice, shall render proof of loss in the form herein specified within 28 60 days thereafter and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
29 relating to appraisal and time of payment and of bringing suit. If 30 this company shall claim that no liability existed as to the 31 mortgagor or owner, it shall, to the extent of payment of loss to 32 the mortgagee, be subrogated to all the mortgagee's rights of 33 recovery, but without impairing mortgagee's right to sue; or it may 34 pay off the mortgage debt and require an assignment thereof and 35 of the mortgage. Other provisions relating to the interests and 36 obligations of the mortgagee may be added hereto by agreement
37 in writing.

Pro rata liability

This company shall not be liable for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole insurance covering the property against the peril involved, whether collectible or not.

Requirements in case loss occurs

The insured shall give written notice to this company of any loss without unnecessary delay, protect the property from further damage, forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, put it in the best possible order, furnish a complete inventory of the destroyed, damaged and undamaged property, showing in detail quantities, costs, actual cash value and amount of loss claimed; and within 60 days after the loss, unless the time is extended in writing by this company, the insured shall render to this company a proof of loss, signed and sworn to by the insured, stating the knowledge and belief of the insured as to the following: the time and origin of the loss, the interest of the insured and of all others in the property, the actual cash value of each item thereof and the amount of loss thereto, all encumbrances thereon, all other contracts of insurance, whether valid or not, covering any of said property, any changes in the title, use, occupation, location, possession or exposures of said property since the issuing of this policy, by whom and for what purpose any building herein described and the several parts thereof were occupied at the time of loss and whether or not it then stood on leased ground, and shall furnish a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies and, if required and obtainable, verified plans and specifications of any building, fixtures or machinery destroyed or damaged.

The insured, as often as may be reasonably required and subject to the provisions of Section 2071.1, shall exhibit to any person designated by this company all that remains of any property herein described, and submit to examinations under oath by any person named by this company, and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examinations all books of account, bills, invoices, and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if the originals be lost, at any reasonable time and place as may be designated by this company or its representative,

1 and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made. The insurer
2 shall inform the insured that tax returns are privileged against 3 disclosure under applicable law but may be necessary to process
4 or determine the claim.

5 The insurer shall notify every claimant that they may obtain,
6 upon request, copies of claim-related documents. For purposes of 7 this section, "claim-related documents" means all documents that 8 relate to the evaluation of damages, including, but not limited to,
9 repair and replacement estimates and bids, appraisals, scopes of 10 loss, drawings, plans, reports, third-party findings on the amount 11 of loss, covered damages, and cost of repairs, and all other 12 valuation, measurement, and loss adjustment calculations of the 13 amount of loss, covered damage, and cost of repairs. However,
14 attorney work product and attorney-client privileged documents,
15 and documents that indicate fraud by the insured or that contain 16 medically privileged information, are excluded from the documents
17 an insurer is required to provide pursuant to this section to a 18 claimant. Within 15 calendar days after receiving a request from 19 an insured for claim-related documents, the insurer shall provide 20 the insured with copies of all claim-related documents, except 21 those excluded by this section. Nothing in this section shall be 22 construed to affect existing litigation discovery rights.

23 After a covered loss, the insurer shall provide, free of charge, a 24 complete, current copy of this policy within 30 calendar days of 25 receipt of a request from the insured. The time period for providing 26 this policy may be extended by the Insurance Commissioner.

27 An insured who does not experience a covered loss shall, upon 28 request, be entitled to one free copy of this policy annually. The 29 policy provided to the insured shall include, where applicable, the 30 policy declarations page.

31 Appraisal

32
33
34 In case the insured and this company shall fail to agree as to the 35 actual cash value or the amount of loss, then, on the written request
36 of either, each shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser 37 and notify the other of the appraiser selected within 20 days of the 38 request. Where the request is accepted, the appraisers shall first 39 select a competent and disinterested umpire; and failing for 15
40 days to agree upon the umpire, then, on request of the insured or

1 this company, the umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court
2 of record in the state in which the property covered is located.
3 Appraisal proceedings are informal unless the insured and this 4 company mutually agree otherwise. For purposes of this section,
5 “informal” means that no formal discovery shall be conducted,
6 including depositions, interrogatories, requests for admission, or 7 other forms of formal civil discovery, no formal rules of evidence 8 shall be applied, and no court reporter shall be used for the 9 proceedings. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating 10 separately actual cash value and loss to each item; and, failing to 11 agree, shall submit their differences, only, to the umpire. An award
12 in writing, so itemized, of any two when filed with this company
13 shall determine the amount of actual cash value and loss. Each 14 appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting him or her and the 15 expenses of appraisal and umpire shall be paid by the parties
16 equally. In the event of a government-declared disaster, as defined 17 in the Government Code, appraisal may be requested by either the 18 insured or this company but shall not be compelled.

19 20 Adjusters

21
22 If, within a six-month period, the company assigns a third or 23 subsequent adjuster to be primarily responsible for a claim, the 24 insurer, in a timely manner, shall provide the insured with a written 25 status report. For purposes of this section, a written status report 26 shall include a summary of any decisions or actions that are 27 substantially related to the disposition of a claim, including, but 28 not limited to, the amount of losses to structures or contents, the 29 retention or consultation of design or construction professionals,
30 the amount of coverage for losses to structures or contents and all
31 items of dispute.

32 33 Company’s options

34
35 It shall be optional with this company to take all, or any part, of 36 the property at the agreed or appraised value, and also to repair, 37 rebuild or replace the property destroyed or damaged with other
38 of like kind and quality within a reasonable time, on giving notice
39 of its intention so to do within 30 days after the receipt of the proof 40 of loss herein required.

Abandonment

There can be no abandonment to this company of any property.

When loss payable

The amount of loss for which this company may be liable shall be payable 60 days after proof of loss, as herein provided, is received by this company and ascertainment of the loss is made either by agreement between the insured and this company expressed in writing or by the filing with this company of an award as herein provided.

Extended or Guaranteed Replacement Cost Coverage

In the case the insured purchased extended or guaranteed replacement cost coverage, the full scope of extended or guaranteed replacement cost coverage is available whether the homeowner rebuilds at the original or a new location. If the homeowner decides to build or purchase at a new location, the maximum amount to which the homeowner is entitled is determined by the amount it would cost to rebuild at the original location.

Suit

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless all the requirements of this policy shall have been complied with, and unless commenced within 12 months next after inception of the loss.

Subrogation

This company may require from the insured an assignment of all right of recovery against any party for loss to the extent that payment therefor is made by this company.
