SENATE BILL

No. 206

Introduced by Senator Dutton

February 23, 2009

An act to add and repeal Section 17059.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 206, as amended, Dutton. Income tax credit: principal residence. The Personal Income Tax Law authorizes various credits against the taxes imposed by that law.

This bill would allow a credit to a qualified taxpayer, as defined, who purchases a qualified principal residence, as defined, during a specified period. ~~The credit would be,~~ in an amount equal to 10% of the purchase price, not to exceed $8,000, as provided. The bill would limit the total amount of credits to specified aggregate amounts per fiscal year, and provide that the General Fund shall be paid an amount equal to the credits with specified funds from the Neighborhood Stabilization Program 2 Funding as provided.

This bill would take effect immediately as a tax levy.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the
2 following:

3 (a) Targeted neighborhoods in California must be revitalized
4 to restore the state's economy, housing market, and social networks
5 of the state's communities.

6 (b) The state must act to arrest the decline of neighborhoods
7 that have been negatively affected by foreclosed and abandoned
8 residential properties.

9 (c) The state must invest in affordable housing opportunities
10 presented by the increasing inventory of foreclosed and abandoned
11 residential properties throughout the state.

12 ~~SECTION 1.~~

13 SEC. 2. Section 17059.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation
14 Code, to read:

15 17059.5. (a) (1) In the case of a qualified taxpayer who 16 purchases a qualified principal residence on or after the date that 17 the act adding this section takes effect and before the date that is 18 the same day of the 12th month that follows the effective date of 19 this section, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax," 20 as defined in Section 17039, an amount equal to 10 percent of the 21 purchase price of the qualified principal residence, not to exceed 22 eight thousand dollars ($8,000). The credit shall be allowed for 23 the taxable year in which the qualified principal residence is 24 purchased.

25 (2) The credit under this section shall be allowed for the 26 purchase of only one qualified principal residence with respect to 27 any qualified taxpayer.

28 (b) (1) For the purposes of this section, "qualified principal 29 residence" means a single-family residence, whether detached or 30 attached, that has been foreclosed upon, where the residence has 31 gone through the foreclosure process and is now in the possession
32 of the lender, and that is purchased to be the principal residence
33 of the qualified taxpayer for a minimum of three years and is 34 eligible for the homeowner's exemption under Section 218.

35 (2) For the purposes of this section "qualified taxpayer" means
36 the buyer does not have adjusted gross income over ninety-five
37 thousand dollars ($95,000) or one hundred seventy thousand dollars
38 ($170,000) for joint filers.

1 (3) If the qualified taxpayer does not occupy the qualified
2 principal residence as his or her principal residence for at least
3 three years immediately following the purchase, the credit shall 4 be disallowed, and the qualified taxpayer shall be liable for any
5 underpayments attributable to the disallowance of the credit.

6 (c) The qualified taxpayer shall claim the credit on a timely
7 filed original return.

8 (d) The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe rules, guidelines,
9 or procedures necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes
10 of this section. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of 11 Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not 12 apply to any rule, guideline, or procedure prescribed by the 13 Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this section.

14 (e) The credit allowed by this section is not a business credit
15 within the meaning of Section 17039.2.

16 (f) The total amount of credits that may be allowed pursuant to 17 this section shall not exceed one hundred thirty million dollars
18 ($130,000,000) for the 2009–10 fiscal year, and one hundred
19 million dollars ($100,000,000) for the 2010–11 fiscal year.

20 (g) The General Fund shall be paid an amount equal to the 21 amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to this section with funds
22 from the Neighborhood Stabilization Program 2 Funds
23 administered by the Department of Housing and Community
24 Development, to the extent federal law authorizes the use of those 25 funds for this purpose.

26 (f)

27 (h) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1,
28 2012, and as of that date is repealed.

29 ~~SEC. 2.~~

30 SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of 31 Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.
