

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 9, 2012

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2011–12 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1722

Introduced by Assembly Member Alejo

February 16, 2012

An act to add Section 101.13 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highway signs.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1722, as amended, Alejo. Department of Transportation: changeable message signs.

Existing law provides that the Department of Transportation has full possession and control of all state highways. Existing law, the Outdoor Advertising Act, provides for the regulation by the department of advertising displays, as defined, within view of public highways. Existing law also authorizes the department to install and maintain information signs along state highways.

This bill would require the department to, by June 30, 2013, update it policies to permit ~~local transportation agencies to display~~ displays of specified messages on changeable roadside message signs.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 101.13 is added to the Streets and
- 2 Highways Code, to read:
- 3 101.13. (a) Prior to June 30, 2013, the department shall update
- 4 its internal policies to allow ~~local transportation agencies to display~~

- 1 displays of the following types of messages on changeable message
2 signs:
3 (1) Safety messages.
4 (2) Transportation-related messages.
5 (3) Reminders to register to vote.
6 (4) Reminders to vote as elections approach.
7 (b) For purposes of this section, “changeable message sign”
8 means any electronic sign on a roadway with a changeable message
9 typically used to alert motorists of traffic conditions, unusual
10 weather conditions, emergencies, or other events.
11 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the
12 requirements of the Emergency Alert System or the Amber Plan
13 under Section 8594 of the Government Code.
