[Filed with Secretary of State April 23, 2012.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 55, Liu. California Runaway and Homeless Youth Month.

This measure would designate the month of November 2012 as California Runaway and Homeless Youth Month and would recognize the need for individuals, schools, communities, businesses, local governments, and the state to take action on behalf of runaway and homeless youth in California.

WHEREAS, Runaway and homeless youth are young people between 12 and 24 years of age who have the least access to essential opportunities and supports; and

WHEREAS, The prevalence of runaways and homelessness among youth is staggering, with studies nationally suggesting that between 1.6 and 2.8 million youth live on the street for at least one night in a one-year period; and

WHEREAS, An estimated 200,000 youth under 18 years of age, and thousands more who are 18 to 24 years of age, experience homelessness each year in California; and

WHEREAS, An overwhelming majority of runaway and homeless youth have been expelled from their homes by their families; physically, sexually, and emotionally abused at home; discharged from foster care and other state custodial systems without adequate transition plans; separated from their parents by death or divorce; too poor to secure their own basic needs; and ineligible or unable to access adequate medical or mental health resources; and

WHEREAS, Runaway and homeless youth who live on the street are victims of physical abuse, sexual exploitation, and crime in untold numbers; and

WHEREAS, These youths are on the street because they feel there are no other options open to them; and

WHEREAS, Youths who “age out” of the foster care system are at an increased risk of homelessness, and represent an estimated 25 to 40 percent of the youth who are currently homeless; and

WHEREAS, Providing safe, stable, and permanent housing for runaway and homeless youth is a family, community, state, and national priority; and

WHEREAS, The future well-being of our state depends on the value we place on our youth, and, in particular, on our actions to provide the most vulnerable young people in the state with opportunities to acquire the knowledge, skills, and abilities they need to find and maintain stable housing and develop into healthy and productive adults; and

WHEREAS, The number of effective programs providing services and support to runaway and homeless youth in California is a fraction of what is needed to fully address the needs of these young people; and

WHEREAS, The California Coalition for Youth has operated the California Youth Crisis Line (1-800-843-5200), 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for over 24 years as the state's only emergency response system for youth in crisis; and

WHEREAS, November is National Runaway and Homeless Youth Awareness Month; and

WHEREAS, The California Coalition for Youth, along with other community-based organizations, providers, and advocates, is sponsoring the second annual California Runaway and Homeless Youth Month to increase awareness and action on behalf of youth who are at risk or currently living on the street; and

WHEREAS, Awareness of the tragedy of youth homelessness and its causes must be heightened to ensure greater support for effective programs aimed at preventing homelessness and helping youth remain off the streets; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the need for individuals, schools, communities, businesses, local governments, and the state to take action on behalf of runaway and homeless youth in California; and be it further
