

Introduced by Senator GainesFebruary 23, 2012

An act to amend Section 6501 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to professional fiduciaries.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1226, as introduced, Gaines. Professional fiduciaries.

Existing law, the Professional Fiduciaries Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of professional fiduciaries, as defined, by the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau within the Department of Consumer Affairs, and defines various terms for its purposes.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to the definitions provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 6501 of the Business and Professions
- 2 Code is amended to read:
- 3 6501. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the
- 4 following meanings:
- 5 (a) "Act" means this chapter.
- 6 (b) "Bureau" means the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau within
- 7 the Department of Consumer Affairs, established pursuant to
- 8 Section 6510.
- 9 (c) "Client" means an individual who is served by a professional
- 10 fiduciary.
- 11 (d) "Department" means the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(e) “Licensee” means a person who is licensed under this chapter as a professional fiduciary.

(f) (1) “Professional fiduciary” means a person who acts as a conservator of the person, the estate, or person and estate, or guardian of the estate, or person and estate, for two or more individuals at the same time who are not related to the professional fiduciary or to each other.

(2) “Professional fiduciary” also means a person who acts as a trustee, agent under a durable power of attorney for health care, or agent under a durable power of attorney for finances, for more than three individuals, at the same time.

In counting individuals under this paragraph to determine whether a person is a professional fiduciary:

(A) Individuals who are related to the fiduciary shall not be counted.

(B) All individuals who are related to each other shall be counted as one individual.

(C) All trustors who are related to each other shall be counted as one individual, and neither the number of trusts nor the number of beneficiaries of those trusts shall be counted.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, “related” means related by blood, adoption, marriage, or registered domestic partnership.

(4) “Professional fiduciary” does not include any of the following:

(A) A trust company, as defined in Section 83 of the Probate Code.

(B) An ~~FDIC-insured~~ institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), or its holding companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates. For the purposes of this subparagraph, “affiliate” means any entity that shares an ownership interest with, or that is under the common control of, the FDIC-insured institution.

(C) Any public agency, including the public guardian, public conservator, or other agency of the State of California or of a county of California or any regional center for persons with developmental disabilities as defined in Section 4620 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(D) Any nonprofit corporation or charitable trust that is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that satisfies all of the following requirements:

1 (i) Is an organization described in Section 509(a)(1), Section
2 509(a)(2), or Section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

3 (ii) Has been in existence for at least five years.

4 (iii) Has total institutional funds as described in subdivision (e)
5 of Section 18502 of the Probate Code according to its most recent
6 audited financial statement with a value of at least two million
7 dollars ($2,000,000) net of encumbrances.

12 income, a sum certain, or a fixed percentage of the net fair market
13 value of the trust assets as described in Section 664(d) of the 14 Internal Revenue Code governing charitable remainder trusts.

15 (II) It is a trust from which annual distributions are limited to 16 a guaranteed annuity or a fixed percentage of the fair market value
17 of the property as described in Section 2055(e)(2)(B) or Section
18 2522(c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

19 (III) It is a trust from which annual distributions are limited to 20 income, including a pooled income fund from which annual
21 distributions are limited to income as described in Section 642(c)(5)
22 of the Internal Revenue Code governing pooled income funds.

23 (IV) It is a trust as to which the value of the charitable interest
24 was presently ascertainable upon creation of the trust and
25 deductible for federal gift, estate, or income tax purposes under 26 the Internal Revenue Code as in effect prior to enactment of the 27 federal Tax Reform Act of 1969 (Public Law 91-172).

28 (E) A person employed by or acting as an agent on behalf of an
29 entity or agency described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D)
30 who is acting within the course and scope of that employment or
31 agency, and a public officer of an agency described in subparagraph
32 (C) acting in the course and scope of official duties.

33 (F) Any person whose sole activity as a professional fiduciary
34 is as a broker-dealer, broker-dealer agent, investment adviser, or 35 investment adviser representative registered and regulated under 36 the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Division 1 (commencing 37 with Section 25000) of Title 4 of the Corporations Code), the
38 Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 80b-1 et seq.),
39 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78a et 40 seq.), or involves serving as a trustee to a company regulated by

- 1 the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment
- 2 Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.).
- 3 (g) “Committee” means the Professional Fiduciaries Advisory
- 4 Committee, as established pursuant to Section 6511.
