AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY JUNE 15, 2000

AMENDED IN SENATE APRIL 26, 2000

SENATE BILL

No. 1745

Introduced by Senator Burton
(Principal coauthor: Senator Sher)
(Coauthor: Assembly Member Bock)

February 23, 2000

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 827 of the Civil Code, relating to landlord-tenant.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1745, as amended, Burton. Landlord-tenant.

Existing law, with certain exceptions, requires 30 days' notice for a change in the terms of, or termination of, a month-to-month tenancy.

This bill would enact provisions operative only until January 1, 2006, that would revise the procedure for providing that notice and require an additional 30 days' notice for a proposed rent increase ~~that is at least 10%~~, either in and of itself or when combined with all other rent increases in the 12 months prior to the effective date of the increase is more than 10% of the current amount of rent charged to a tenant at any time during the 12 months prior to the effective date of the increase. The bill would also provide that if a statute, ordinance, state or federal regulation, recorded regulatory agreement, or contract provides for a longer period of notice, the personal service or mailing of the notice shall be in accordance with the longer period.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to 2 respond to tight rental market conditions by providing
3 tenants with longer notice when served with a rent
4 increase of more than 10 percent in a 12-month period
5 and providing owners with an easier method of service
6 for notices of rent increases. The longer notice prescribed
7 in this act provides tenants with additional time to 8 respond to rent increases by, for example, augmenting
9 their income with an additional job, finding a roommate,
10 or relocating. The longer notice is not intended to 11 constitute rent control, nor is it a statement of public
12 policy regarding acceptable or unacceptable levels of 13 rent increases.

14 SEC. 2. Section 827 of the Civil Code is amended to 15 read:

16 827. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in all
17 leases of lands or tenements, or of any interest therein,
18 from week to week, month to month, or other period less 19 than a month, the landlord may, upon giving notice in 20 writing to the tenant, in the manner prescribed by 21 Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, change the 22 terms of the lease to take effect, as to tenancies for less
23 than one month, upon the expiration of a period at least 24 as long as the term of the hiring itself, and, as to tenancies 25 from month to month, to take effect at the expiration of 26 not less than 30 days, but if that change takes effect within 27 a rental term, the rent accruing from the first day of the 28 term to the date of that change shall be computed at the 29 rental rate which obtained immediately prior to that 30 change; provided, however, that it shall be competent for 31 the parties to provide by an agreement in writing that a 32 notice changing the terms thereof may be given at any

1 time not less than seven days before the expiration of a
2 term, to be effective upon the expiration of the term.

3 The notice, when served upon the tenant, shall of itself
4 operate and be effectual to create and establish, as a part
5 of the lease, the terms, rents, and conditions specified in 6 the notice, if the tenant shall continue to hold the 7 premises after the notice takes effect.

8 (b) (1) In all leases of a residential dwelling, or of any 9 interest therein, from week to week, month to month, or 10 other period less than a month, the landlord may increase 11 the rent provided in the lease or rental agreement, upon 12 giving written notice to the tenant, as follows, by either
13 of the following procedures:

14 (A) By delivering a copy to the tenant personally.

15 (B) By serving a copy by mail under the procedures
16 prescribed in Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

17 (2) If the proposed rent increase for that tenant is less
18 than 10 percent or less of the ~~current~~ rental amount
19 charged to that tenant at any time during the 12 months 20 prior to the effective date of the increase, either in and 21 of itself or when combined with any other rent increases
22 for the 12 months prior to the effective date of the 23 increase, the notice shall be delivered at least 30 days 24 prior to the effective date of the increase, ~~subject to~~ 25 ~~Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.~~

26 (3) For an increase in rent greater than the amount
27 described in paragraph (2), the minimum notice period
28 required pursuant to that paragraph shall be increased by 29 an additional 30 days.

30 (c) If a state or federal statute, ~~ordinance~~, state or 31 federal regulation, recorded regulatory agreement, or 32 contract provides for a longer period of notice regarding 33 a rent increase than that provided in subdivision (a) or 34 (b), the personal service or mailing of the notice shall be 35 in accordance with the longer period.

36 (d) This section shall be operative only until January
37 1, 2006, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later
38 enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 39 2006, deletes or extends that date.

40 ~~SEC. 2.~~

1 SEC. 3. Section 827 is added to the Civil Code, to read:
2 827. (a) In all leases of lands or tenements, or of any
3 interest therein, from week to week, month to month, or 4 other period less than a month, the landlord may, upon
5 giving notice in writing to the tenant, in the manner
6 prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil 7 Procedure, change the terms of the lease to take effect, 8 as to tenancies for less than one month, upon the 9 expiration of a period at least as long as the term of the 10 hiring itself, and, as to tenancies from month to month, to 11 take effect at the expiration of not less than 30 days, but 12 if that change takes effect within a rental term, the rent
13 accruing from the first day of the term to the date of that 14 change shall be computed at the rental rate which was 15 obtained immediately prior to that change; provided, 16 however, that it shall be competent for the parties to 17 provide by an agreement in writing that a notice
18 changing the terms thereof may be given at any time not 19 less than seven days before the expiration of a term, to be 20 effective upon the expiration of the term.
21 The notice, when served upon the tenant, shall of itself
22 operate and be effectual to create and establish, as a part
23 of the lease, the terms, rents, and conditions specified in 24 the notice, if the tenant shall continue to hold the 25 premises after the notice takes effect.
26 (b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 27 2006.
